

Report on my activities towards developing countries in 2015-6

Michel Jambu

Professor Emeritus

University of Nice Sophia Antipolis

1. Myanmar (8th International Conference on Science and Maths Education in Developing Countries, yangon Unv-iversity, 4-6 December 2015), Invited speaker “Geometry & Computer Vision”.
2. SEAMS-CIMPA school on “Some Aspects of Representation Theory” (9-17 November 2015), Universitas Gadjah Mada, Yogyakarta, Indonesia. Lecturer.
3. Royal University of Phnom Penh, Master of Mathematics, course on “Applied Geometry” (20 November-31 December 2015).
4. Salahaddin University, Erbil, Kurdistan, Irak, workshop on “Special Functions, q-Analogs and Monodromy” (April 2016), lecturer.
5. Invited speaker to the 1st International Conference on Pure and Applied Sciences, (5-7 March 2016), University of Management and Technology, Lahore, Pakistan. “Topology and Robotics”.
6. Member of the Scientific Advisory Board (Pakistan), chairman, Pr. Michel Waldschmidt.
7. MOU between National University of Mongolia (NUM) and University of Nice Sophia Antipolis (UNS) (October 2015).
8. MOU between Departments of Mathematics of NUM and UNS (in preparation).
9. Preparation of a project (Master and doctoral program in maths) with the university of Mandalay (Myanmar) in relation with SEAMaN (Network organized by ISP, with NUOL, Laos and RUPP, Cambodia). Visit planned in November 2016.